

State Parks and Forests: A Perfect Place to Meet

DCNR State Park and Forest District Office Meeting Facilities Available for Use

What better venue for your next meeting or conference than one of Pennsylvania's state parks or forests? Take your occasional breaks in the beauty of Penn's Woods and get to know your public lands. Chances are your participants will stay more alert and focused and you'll accomplish so much more than you would in a hotel conference center!

Bureau of State Parks

Policy: The bureau has no written policy outside of the fee waiver.

Agreements/Authorization Required: Most are "hand shake deals." In some cases (such as the agility program) arrangements are made in which the bureau stipulates what each agency attending is going to do and/or provide for the meeting or event.

Contact for Facility Info/Availability: For more information on the below listed facilities, please contact the appropriate park manager. Meeting rooms are handled locally by each park.

State Parks and Forests: A Perfect Place to Meet

Bureau of Forestry

Policy: The bureau has no written policy toward use of meeting facilities, but has never engaged in any deals with commercial industry toward such. BOF does, at times, allow other agencies/partners use of district office facilities.

Agreements/Authorization Required: Most are “hand shake deals.” In some cases, it is necessary to make arrangements to have a staff member on site to open/close building if meeting is outside of normal business hours, or to make arrangements to stipulate what each agency attending is going to do and/or provide for the meeting or event.

Contact for Facility Info/Availability: For more information on the below listed facilities, please contact the appropriate forest district. Meeting rooms are handled locally each district office.
