

250 CELEBRATIONS BINGO

To celebrate 250 years of Pennsylvania’s outdoor heritage, we invite you to explore, connect, and give back through 250 Celebrations Bingo. Each square represents a simple way to engage with parks, forests, history, and community—whether from home or out on the trail. Complete activities to fill a row, column, or the entire card.

EXPLORE	READ, WATCH, LISTEN	CONNECT & SHARE	GIVE BACK	PARTICIPATE & ADVOCATE
Visit a museum or historic site near a state park or forest 	Listen to the Think Outside Podcast 	Introduce someone to a park or forest	Volunteer at a park, forest or with a friends group	Take action through the PPFF Action Center
Visit a state park or forest	Read and share a PPFF blog 	Share a favorite park or forest photo	Participate in Healthy Lands Week 	Attend a PPFF or Friends Group, pop-up event or program
Visit 25 state parks or forests this year	Sign up for Take Five Fridays with Pam 	 FREE SPACE Freedom to Explore	Connect with PPFF on Meetup https://www.meetup.com/ppff-events/	Participate in Run for the Trees (walk, roll, or run)
Learn the history of a state park or forest	Read a PPFF Book Club selection	Share a podcast episode with a friend	Plant a tree at your home or with a group	Become a PPFF member
Explore a trail, boardwalk, or accessible feature	Watch a Conservation Heritage Project documentary 	Share a memory through “250 Voices for the Outdoors” 	Donate to the Outdoors for All campaign 	Attend the PPFF Annual Banquet

How to Play

There's no right way to play:

- Do one square or go for Bingo
- Participate solo or with friends and family
- Share your progress along the way

Most of all, have fun—and help us celebrate 250 Years of Freedom to Explore: Expanding Access for All

How It Works

- Download your 250 Celebrations Bingo card from our website or print out the one on the back of this page
- Complete activities throughout the year—big or small
- Submit your progress anytime using our online form
- Optional: share photos or stories to inspire others
- Rolling participation is open all year

Submissions received by October 31, 2026 will be included in our year-end celebration and prize drawings.

Why Participate

- Discover new parks, programs, and stories
- Support conservation and accessibility
- Be part of a statewide community celebrating 250 years of outdoor heritage
- Be a voice for parks and forests
- Get recognized as a 250 Celebrations Champion

Bonus / Swap-In Squares

- Spend 30 minutes each week outdoors
- Post a positive review of the PA Parks & Forests Passport
- Use the following Hashtags on social media:
#PA250 #FreedomToExplore #PAParksAndForests #CaringForWhatWeShare
- Follow and tag us on your social posts
- Practice Leave No Trace Principles
- Post a picture of you getting a stamp in your Pennsylvania State Parks and Forests Passport
- Visit a small business near a state park or forest
- Create your own adventure!

Recognition & Rewards

Participants may be:

- Featured on our website or social media
- Highlighted in our newsletter
- Included in monthly spotlights and drawings
- Recognized in our year-end celebration

Recognition is always optional—and photos or stories are never required.

You can download a copy of the playing card at:

<https://paparksandforests.org/our-work/stewardship/celebrate-250/>

To submit updates on your progress (at any time!) and to win prizes, visit:

<https://ppff.online/play-celebrate-250-bingo>

Think Outside
WITH THE PENNSYLVANIA PARKS & FORESTS FOUNDATION

TUNE IN AT THINKOUTSIDE.ORG
Wherever you get your podcasts!

Bob Ross Happy Little Virtual 5K – April 18–26, 2026

REGISTRATION IS NOW OPEN!

SIGN UP!

You get a tshirt, medal, and race bib!

PA state parks and forests get tree money!

PPFF.Online/Happy5K2026